

SHE STOLE HER BOY

Story of a Mother's Latent Love for Her Child.

SKIPPED WITH IT TO TOLEDO

The Adopted Parents Employ a Detective and Recover the Lad from Questionable Surroundings.

Sheriff McQueen and Charles Dwyer returned last evening from Toledo, Ohio, with a little five-year-old boy that had been adopted by Dwyer. The story connected with their trip as related by Dwyer is that when the child was three months old his mother, Mrs. Jennie DeMarsh, gave him over into the possession of Dwyer and his wife, and the little fellow was duly adopted. They cared for him as one of their own and had become greatly attached to him. The child's mother called at their home on Fifth avenue occasionally to see him, and everything seemed to be satisfactory. On Nov. 23 last Mrs. DeMarsh called at their home and said that she would like to take the boy to a hardware store near by and get him a pair of skates. They unsuspiciously permitted the boy to accompany his mother, and that was the last they saw or heard of him until a few weeks ago. The matter was referred to Detective Kennedy and the case put into his hands. The detective immediately went to work and finally located the mother and child in Toledo. The fact was made known to Mr. Dwyer, and he and Sheriff McQueen went to Toledo for the purpose of arresting Mrs. DeMarsh on a charge of abduction. She was found in a block of questionable character, and the boy was living with her. She refused to accompany the sheriff without a requisition paper, and upon the delivery of the boy into the possession of Dwyer, the matter was dropped.

WOMAN'S WORLD IN PARAGRAPHS.

The Woman's Employment Bureau has been organized.

A business man writes to "Woman's World" that the busy woman, trained to her work, is fully as capable as the housewife with the same training, and is more reliable than he. He says that the woman goes out to take a drink. He calls attention, however, to the one great wrong and evil in the case of women in business. It is that women do not get equal pay with men for equal work. As an instance he mentions the case of the two women typists.

GREAT IS MR. HURLEY

Police and Fire Commissioners Sing His Praises

ROAST ON THE MORNING PRESS

The Board Resolves that There Was No Excuse Whatever for the Publication of the Bribery Charges.

At the meeting of the board of police and fire commissioners held yesterday afternoon, the following resolution was adopted, vindicating Lieut. Hurley from the charges preferred against him in the Morning Press some time ago:

Whereas, The attention of this board was some time since called to the publication in the Morning Press of certain charges against Lieut. Hurley to the effect that he had received bribes and hush money from certain gamblers in consideration of immunity from arrest; and

Whereas, This board requested the publishers of the Morning Press to produce their evidence in support of such charges, if any they had, before this board at a meeting to be held to suit their convenience; and

Whereas, No attention whatever has been paid to the said request; and

Whereas, Lieut. Hurley caused criminal proceedings to be instituted against the publishers of the Morning Press for a criminal libel which was prosecuted to a trial in police court before a jury who promptly rendered a verdict of guilty against the publishers of the Press; now therefore

Resolved, That it is the sense of this board that there was no excuse or justification whatever for the publication of said charges, that inasmuch as the preservation of law and order in the city depends largely upon the faithfulness and efficiency of the police officers, and inasmuch as the publication of such charges tends to bring the police force into discredit and impair its efficiency, it should be the aim of every worthy newspaper to do its utmost to support the officers of the law in the discharge of their duty and refrain from publishing anything to their discredit until they are certain that the charge is true and that the public good will be promoted by its publication;

Resolved further, That we extend to Lieut. Hurley every assurance of our continued confidence in his integrity, faithfulness and efficiency, and that we further assure him that we at no time credited the charges of the Morning Press nor doubted his ability to refute them.

Jonas Earle tendered his resignation as a member of the police force and it was accepted. Accounts amounting to $299.11 were audited and ordered paid. The secretary reported the receipt of $23.33 from witness fees. Thomas K. Finn made application for a position on the force and it was placed on file.

Does Protection Protect. Certainly, in one instance it does. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the great protection against danger of impure blood, and it will cure or prevent all diseases of this class. It has well won its name of the best blood purifier.

CHEATING IN HORSE BLANKETS

Nearly every pattern of the Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine but it isn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much. The fact that the Horse Blankets are copied is strong evidence that they are THE STANDARD, and every buyer should see that the trade mark is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.

If you are nervous, restless, irritable, sleepless, wake after horrid dreams, tired mornings, with a dull headache, bad taste in the mouth, sometimes discharges, and go about your employment without life, energy or ambition, desire to be alone, gloomy forebodings, a disposition to worry and fret about trouble ahead that never comes, spells of feeling afraid or uncertain, sometimes nervous, you are suffering from nervous debility and exhaustion of nerve power, which may end in utter prostration, insanity and death.

If you have a great sense of weakness and weariness, with tired limbs, numbness, trembling, prickly sensations, cold feet and legs, you are advancing toward that most serious disease—Paralysis.

If your head aches, feel numb and tired, with strange sensations, loss of memory, and you think with difficulty or you are sleepless at night, with drowsiness and dullness during the day, the nerve and brain fatigue may soon run into insanity or death.

If you have any of these feelings do not neglect them, or they will end in paralysis, insanity, prostration or death.

TERRIBLE BACKACHE CURED.

I had a terrible steady backache, for four years without let up, at all times, and I could hardly straighten up. Could not ride in wagon on account of the greater pain from the top of the spine. The pain was so bad that I have now been under the treatment of Dr. S. Clay Todd, 16 N. Division street, Grand Rapids, Mich., ten days, and yesterday I rode 25 miles and also riding over a wagon without pain at all—the first time in four years I could cheerfully recommend Dr. Todd to those who have great pains in their backs.
